The Sculpture Center Announces Bridget Lewis Window to Sculpture Exhibit

The Sculpture Center announces an exhibit of new work by Bridget Lewis, from Aug. 8 through Sept. 5, 2003. The free, public opening reception is Friday, Aug. 8, from 5 pm to 8 pm.

Ms. Lewis works in porcelain, muslin, and screenprints – creating objects to enhance personal memory and to document the domestic souvenirs of life. Her work builds on the question of; “what process is involved in connecting an experience to a particular object? How do objects help us remember and process a memory?” Ms. Lewis encourages gallery visitors to handle and try on her created objects.

Ms. Lewis recently completed a residency at Vermont Studio Center in Johnson, Vermont. She has a B.F.A. in Ceramics and a B.A. in History of Art from The Ohio State University.

The Sculpture Center gallery hours are Monday through Friday, 10 am to 4 pm, and Saturdays from noon to 4 pm. The exhibit, opening reception, and parking are free to the public. The Sculpture Center is handicapped accessible. The Sculpture Center is a not-for-profit arts organization. Exhibiting artists receive 100% of sales.
