

SUMMER 2018 PAID INTERNSHIP FOR CLEVELAND COLLEGE STUDENT, JUNIOR OR SENIOR, WITH FINANCIAL NEED
INTERNSHIP FOR VIDEOGRAPHER TO PRODUCE SHORT MARKETING VIDEOS OF ARTISTS AND OTHERS

We are seeking a summer intern for ARTS Intern, a Studio Institute supported program. The program is open to students who attend school elsewhere, but are a resident of the city of Cleveland or the inner-ring suburbs, as well as students who attend college in the city of Cleveland, who have a demonstrated financial need. Applicants from diverse cultural backgrounds are strongly encouraged to apply. The intern receives $3,000 for full-time four (4) days a week work at The Sculpture Center and $575 for one (1) full-day a week work for the Studio Institute from June 15 – August 17, 2018 (9 weeks). Some half-day Saturday work is required with Sunday and Mondays free those weeks. For full details on the ARTS Intern program and to apply see www.artsintern.org.

The Sculpture Center will hire an applicant who is highly proficient in documentary videography to make a series of short videos featuring past exhibiting sculptors, board members, and key community supporters. The intern needs to be well organized, goal oriented, and able to develop a plan of action. The intern must be self-confident, outgoing, and comfortable reaching out to strangers through email, phone calls, and face-to-face conversations.

The intern will work directly with Ann Albano, the Executive Director + Chief Curator.

Responsibilities will include the following:

- Assist with the installation of the summer group exhibition, After the Pedestal, the 11th exhibition of Small Sculpture from the Region, and fully understand the works of art in the exhibition in order to market it to visitors and in video.
- Make a series of short videos about The Sculpture Center, its past exhibiting sculptors, founder, board members, and community supporters that can be put on our website and used for grant applications and reports and marketing
- Helping to organize and host an outreach event to our neighborhood
- Working some Saturday afternoons as the galleries supervisor, with time off on Mondays

about The Sculpture Center

The Sculpture Center (sculpturecenter.org), founded by Cleveland artist David E. Davis, is a not-for-profit arts organization with a mission unique to this country of supporting the careers of emerging sculptors, installation artists, and other practitioners of expanded media in our greater region and encouraging the preservation of Ohio public outdoor sculpture. It presents from 8-10 solo exhibitions a year and one group exhibition, either guest curated or juried. On its website is the Ohio Outdoor Sculpture (OOSI), a database which provides images, historical data, and condition information on over 1,000 outdoor public sculptures in Ohio.

We broadly define contemporary sculpture as individual pieces in all media, installation, expanded media, performance, and relational aesthetics. Our region is Ohio, adjacent states, western NY and PA, and Ontario, Canada.

for further information

Please contact Ann Albano, Executive Director + Chief Curator, aalbano@sculpturecenter.org , 216.229.6527