Main Gallery and Euclid Avenue Gallery of The Sculpture Center

Free and Open to the Public

CLEVELAND— The Sculpture Center, an arts institution dedicated to advancing the careers of emerging sculptors of Ohio and its greater region and the preservation of Ohio outdoor public sculpture, is excited to open its summer juried exhibition After the Pedestal, the 11th exhibition of small sculpture from the region, on view Friday, June 22 through Friday, August 17, 2018.

Always critically well-received, this annual show is juried by an artist or curator of national and international reputation. The Sculpture Center is proud to announce chief curator at the Albright-Knox Art Gallery in Buffalo, New York, Cathleen Chaffee as the juror this year. Sculptors, including students, currently living and working in our greater region of Ohio, its contiguous states, and Ontario, Canada, submitted work for inclusion in the show through an open call. Everybody is welcome to the free Opening Reception, 5:30 to 8 p.m. Friday, June 22, 2018 in the Main Gallery and Euclid Avenue Gallery of The Sculpture Center (1834 E. 123rd Street Cleveland, Ohio 44106).

Juror Dr. Cathleen Chaffee

About the Juror: Dr. Cathleen Chaffee was the Horace W. Goldsmith Assistant Curator of Modern and Contemporary Art at the Yale University Art Gallery from 2010 to 2014 and previously held curatorial positions at the Museum of Modern Art, New York, and the Cleveland Museum of Art. Chaffee received her PhD from the Institute of Fine Arts at New York University and was awarded a 2008 Fulbright Fellowship to Belgium in order to complete research for her dissertation, Décors: Marcel Broodthaers's Late Exhibition Practice 1974–75. She received her master's degree from the Courtauld Institute of Art, University of London, and completed her undergraduate studies at Ithaca College.

About The Sculpture Center

Founded by Cleveland artist David E. Davis in 1989, The Sculpture Center is a not-for-profit arts organization with a mission unique to this country of supporting the careers of emerging sculptors of Ohio and our greater region and encouraging the preservation of Ohio public outdoor sculpture. The Sculpture Center exhibits the highest quality contemporary sculpture by rapidly rising, mid-career, and established artists with a focus on sculpture of our region. We value risk-taking and an exploration of new avenues of creativity by each artist. New artwork is created especially for all our curated exhibitions. Admission is always free. There is ample free parking and handicap accessibility to our galleries.

The Sculpture Center receives generous support from The Callahan Foundation, The John P. Murphy Foundation, the Bernice and David E. Davis Art Foundation, The George Gund Foundation, the Cleveland Foundation, The Char and Chuck Fowler Family Foundation, the Cyrus Eaton Foundation, studioTECHNE|architects, Sculpture Center board members, and many individual donors to Friends of The Sculpture Center. The W2S 2018 W2S series is directly supported by the National Endowment for the Arts. The Sculpture Center is supported in part by the residents of Cuyahoga County through a public grant from Cuyahoga Arts & Culture. It is also supported by grants from the Ohio Arts Council which receives federal monies through the National Endowment for the Arts. Learn More at sculpturecenter.org.
