

NEGOTIATING THE ARTWORKS

the sculpture center

PHOTOGRAPHING
ARTWORK ON A BUDGET

FREE PHOTOGRAPHY WORKSHOPS

Learn from professional photographer

Jerry Birchfield about taking great application worthy photos of your art. Come to 1 or all 3 sessions to learn techniques about lighting, equipment, set-up, and editing photos using inexpensive equipment, apps/software. Materials for demonstrations provided. Bring whichever camera you use, including your cell phone.

OPEN TO ALL ARTISTS OF ALL MEDIA

We extend a special welcome to artists from African American, Latinx, Asian, Refugee, Immigrant, LGBTQ, and other minority communities and to artists who are developing their professional careers without prior college level training in art.

WANT TO LEARN VIDEOGRAPHY?

Apply to shadow photographer and videographer Amber Ford for each of the photography workshops.

Artwork by Jerry Birchfield and Johnny Coleman

WHEN + WHERE

1. Monday, August 13 at 6:30 to 8pm
Photographing 2D Art (anything flat)
2. Monday, August 20 at 6:30 to 8pm
Photographing 3D Art (everything else)
3. Tuesday, August 28, 6:30 to 8pm
Photo Editing (using free or low cost apps)
4. Tuesday, Sept. 18 at time TBD
Follow Up Online Q&A

Location for all 3 workshops:
Jerry Birchfield's Studio
1667 E. 40th St., 1D2, Cleveland, OH

QUESTIONS?

Contact Ann Albano
aalbano@sculpturecenter.org
216-229-6527

The Sculpture Center
1834 E 123rd St,
Cleveland, OH

Thanks to our proud Sponsors

The George Gund
Foundation

The City of Cleveland's
Cable Television Minority Arts and Education Fund

